Council Has Busy Session

THIRTEEN-ACRE SITE SEEKS ANNEXATION

A petition seeking annexation of a thirteen acre tract of land owned by Perley B. Payne, Jr., Diana Payne and Stephen Baroni of West Rincon avenue was filed with the city council Monday night after having been approved by the boundaries commission. The site is west of Virginia avenue where Rincon makes an S-turn and north to where Bucknall Road would project toward Christopher street and Jane Ann Way. The petition was referred to the city attorney and the city engineer for preliminary report.

The council accepted the final map of Shady Acres subdivision. There was discussion however on the proposed overall development of the acreage south of Latimer avenue at the westerly city limits regarding storm drainage to San Tomas Aquino Creek, its natural watershed recipient. City Engineer Mark Thomas reported petitions had been filed with the Board of Supervisors to have the creek receive first priority in fund expenditures for flood control, indicating the creek channel could be widened or some of the flow might be diverted to Los Gatos Creek.

Campbell, like Los Altos, is interested in subvention monies from the state and how newly incorporated cities can apply these funds prior to 1955. Campbell is in the midst of a capital outlay survey to set up priorities. Mayor Richard Morton is to write the Los Altos council so expressing our interest.

The Chamber of Commerce, in letters signed by President Sam Cava, proposed that the city consider enactment of a handbill ordinance, that speed limit on the San Jose-Los Gatos Road between Hamilton avenue and Union Avenue be reduced from 55 to 35 miles per hour and that parking space alloted Peerless Stage line on Campbell avenue be reduced. Police Chief Robert Locke said he could not prevent yards from being cluttered up with hand bills and throw-aways from out of town unless there was an enforcing ordinance. Matter was referred to the license committee. Mayor Morton told Del Lucot, spokesman for the Chamber of Commerce, that the speeding on the L. G.-S. J. Road was a matter for the State Division of highways and that the city has no jurisdiction over a state road. The city is, however definitely interested in having the speed reduced at the Campbell avenue intersection on the road. He said that the state is making a traffic survey there now.

As for the space allotted Peerless Stage lines, Mayor Morton pointed out that the space would accommodate seven instead of ten cars as previously contended, 84 feet on the north side and 65 feet on the south side of Campbell avenue being in the red zone. Of this footage, two driveway entrances are included and a taxicab stand provided for. A petition with 24 names subscribed was also on file seeking space reduction. Lucot said he understood the stage line was willing to accept shortened parking space, but Lloyd Holt, Peerless Stage manager said a coach needs adequate footage beyond its length for moving in and out of parking position. He asked for an extension of time in which to study the matter which request was granted until the next council meeting.

The city attorney is to write the seller of property for the Union Oil Company site at Central and Hamilton avenues that an outright rather than a conditional deed will only be approved by the city for abstract purposes.

Officer Louis H. Doolittle submitted his resignation effective October first in order to accept another position. The council accepted the resignation "with regrets". Said Mayor Morton, "You have served the city of Campbell with distinction, we regret losing your services and hope that your new work will benefit you substantially".

Fire Chief Jack Scott is to carry on an educational campaign in fire prevention week, October 3 to 9, so this week was so proclaimed by the council as fire prevention week. Robert Mason is to talk about radio communication as a feature of the Auxiliary Police dinner here on the evening of September 24.

The bicycle ordinance was introduced for first reading, setting licensing fees and traffic regulations. Council accepted Kuehnis Tract No. 3 improvements.

Mervin Willoughby of the Campbell Rotary Club, reporting that twenty-five street signs have already been presented the city, said new signs are ready for installing along San Jose-Los Gatos Road at the Campbell avenue, McBain, Fewtrell, and Ridgely avenue intersections and at Union and Campbell avenues. Mayor Morton said the city was receiving great service from the Rotary Club, commenting they are embued with much community spirit.

Council granted permission to the Campbell Methodist Church to remove old walnut trees and brush on their site on Winchester and Latimer for their new church.

An actuary valuation survey is to be scheduled by the city with the state to set up an employe retirement system.

Mayor Morton announced he would be absent at the next meeting. Councilman James Arends was named Mayor Pro-tem.

Chamber Is Urged To Plan For More Industry

The whole-hearted cooperation of the Southern Pacific Company was pledged to the Campbell Chamber of Commerce in its effort to seek out new industries, at a noon time luncheon yesterday in the the IOOF hall, by J. T. McCann, district freight agent in concluding a talk on industrial development.

Members listened intently as McCann said industrialization is going on in many communities of less than 10,000 population especially those on metropolitan area fringes.

Wrigley Chewing Gum put up a three million dollar plant at Santa Cruz because the site was free of dust, smoke or odors which might be absorbed by the products. A paper company has optioned 400 acres near Red Bluff on which to erect a 15-million dollar plant because of an abundance of water, and because ground is high enough to avoid flood damage. Companies come to communities because of pleasant living conditions, low land costs, low taxes, and good industrial zoning near rail facilities.

In one study, a factory employing 150 men would support 393 occupied homes, 320 automobiles, 24 professional men, 18 school teachers and 33 retail stores; its payroll would generate $92,250 in grocery business, $39,000 apparel, $24,500 furniture and appliance sales, $63,000 automobile services, $17,500 lumber and hardware, $8,400 for drugs and sundries, $34,000 for services such as laundry, barber, beauticians and others, with $10,950 for entertainment.

New industry creates job opportunities, diversified economic activity to promote sound growth and it broadens the tax base. Often industrial assessments are greater than residential for taxing purposes. One firm, he said occupied a 20-acre site in Santa Clara County formerly used for farm purposes returning $175 per year in taxes as a farm, $40,000 a year in taxes as an industry. Another 25-acre Santa Clara County ranch increased tax payment from $450 to $45,000 per year as industrial.

Small town planners seeking industries can best start by setting effective zoning programs, seeing that sewerage, water, power, transportation and other services are available in suitable quantities. He said an information chart should be set up on prospective sites, owners, utility services, rail and truck access, soil conditions including load bearing values, drainage, taxes, zoning and vital statistics on the community. This prospectus should then be placed in the hands of railroad representatives, public utilities, banks, industrial realtors and others. Industries best suited to the community should be sought.

Industrial plant investments are usually made on hardhead business judgment. New industries should be made to feel welcome in a community.

Since 1944 Santa Clara County has attracted about 150 new industries representing investments of $153,000,000.00 and an annual payroll of 43-million dollars and in excess of 14,000 workers.

Mario Saia, chairman of the industrial committee, introduced the speaker. Sam P. Cava, Chamber of Commerce president, presided and told of some accomplishments to date by the Chamber of Commerce, and of future plans. Next dinner meeting will be October 20, when Neal Hammond of Ford Motor Company is to be the speaker.

Others present at yesterday's meeting included Mark Purmort, Dave Rutherford, Les Harmon, Joseph Dahl, Lynn Beatty, Verle Grizzle, Louis DeVincenzi, Glen Skillrud, Joaquin Payne, Lester Lafferty, Lowell Benson, Anne Levine, Emily McConnell, Mette Bee, Del Lucot, Ann Marshman, Flora Thomas, Robert Seligson, Ernest Rideout, Dobie Jeffers, Helen F. Storey, Ira H. Grim, Rudy Nelson, M. J. Saia, George L. Parso, and G. S. Robson.

Theft was reported to Campbell Police Department by Sam Reynolds, proprietor. Entrance was gained to the building by smashing a rear window.

Some of the business men and the Chamber of Commerce set up this attractive booth for Campbell at the Santa Clara County Fair and it is attracting interest from the thousands of fair patrons. Ground To Be Broken For Church

Ground breaking ceremonies for the new building of the Campbell Methodist Church at Latimer and Winchester Road will be on Sunday afternoon, September 26th with Bishop Donald Harvey Tippett, resident Bishop of the California Area of Methodis Churches, officiating.

The city council on Monday granted permission to the church building committee headed by Dean Chamberlin, to have trees and brush cleared for the building. Joseph Dahl is assistant chairman.

The First unit to be erected on the three-acre site will be the Fellowship Hall, 48 x 72 feet with capacity for seating 500 on benches or 350 at tables. The architect's estimated contract price of $95,000 may see the project done for $72,000 with volunteer labor and supplies at cost. The Reverend Herbert Neale is pastor of the church.

The site has 285 feet frontage on Winchester Road and 500 feet depth.

IT HAPPENS EVERY YEAR

There is nothing that goes along with the opening of school any more than missing children, anxious parents and dramatic reconciliations. It happens every year and this was no exception.

Six-year-old Robert Power had orders from his mother, Mrs. H. B. Power of Hawthorne St, where to wait at school after classes let out. He waited—and waited—and waited.

Meanwhile his mother came to school to get him and to her distress found no Robert. After several trips between the school and home, Hamilton School received a call from the Campbell Police Department that one small lost boy had been found on Latimer. Mrs. Power waited at the school until the patrol car came near. Her heart sank, the youngster in the car was blond and not her Robert.

About this point neighbers let school know that Robert had walked home and was safe and sound.

Mother and son on comparing notes found that they had misunderstood each other—she waited in front of the classroom and he waited in front of the school.

The little boy, who turned out to be someone else's, finally stopped crying and remembered where he lived.

These stories usually have a happy ending and as long as there are first days of school they'll keep on happening.

HIGHWAY SPEEDING

The Chamber of Commerce has become interested in having the speed limit reduced from 55 to 35 miles per hour on the Los Gatos-San Jose highway between Hamilton and Union Avenues. In a letter to the City Council, the present speed limit, especially at the Campbell avenue intersection, is described as being extremely hazardous.

Mayor Richard Morton points out that the road is under State jurisdiction and the city can do nothing about it except continue urging a reduced speed limit, something which the city has favored for some time. The State in the meantime has made traffic checks to ascertain the practicability of reducing the speed.

There are few two-lane highways in northern California with so much traffic as this one, especially in the summer vacation period. The state, armed with its survey, will no doubt give this matter practical consideration.

FARMING, DELUXE STYLE

Soon now, the labor problem on fruit ranches may be licked, if some of the experiments being tested by agricultural engineers prove successful.

There is a grape harvesting machine that will outdo 100 pickers in a given period of time, but of course the grape vines must be specially trellised so that clustters hang clear and can be clipped off by a that clusters hang clear and can be clipped off by a cuts the stems. Lloyd Lamouris of the Davis campus says it is directly adaptable to raisin and wine grape harvests. But Albert Winklin, a college professor, says the idea is all right if and when new varieties of grapes with longer stems, now in the breeding program, can be produced in quantities.

Then there is a thermo-pulper that will process tomato concentrate, paste and other tomato products. It pulps or mashes fruits or vegetables while they churn through a screw-fed, steam-jacketed cylinder under vacuum. That blends less air into the food product so chemical reaction is less and nutritive value is retained. The Rietz Engineering Company at Santa Rosa made the thermo-pulper which they say is easily adapted to pre-cooking whole fruits and vegetables, including button mushrooms, before being canned. The machine can handle five tons per hour, and output does not have to be refrigerated for storage.

They've got machines to milk the cows and to harvest grain so that no human hands touch it until ready for consumption. But they haven't got a machine to tell the farmer how much of a product to grow, how and to whom to sell it. You just have to figure that one out yourself.

SMOG STATIONS NEXT

Seven bay area region cities and counties, in cooperation with the State Health Department, seek to get data on air pollution through smog stations now being set up.

Air samples are to be taken five days weekly and when smog conditions are critical, the sampling will be more frequent.

The idea is to measure the oxidants in the air so as to get an index on conditions which cause eye irritation, plant damage and impaired visibility. We just want to know what they propose to do with the oxidant when they snag it, besides looking it over. From what little we know about chemistry, its the sort of company oxygen keeps that makes it do one thing or another.

ON THE DOUBLE!

The past came vividly before our eyes last Sunday when we visited the U.S.S. Missouri, "Big Mo," during her brief stay at Hunter's Point. According to reports there were 50,000 visitors that same day, so we didn't even get aboard. However, a view from the dock was sufficient to remind us of many similar visits aboard the battleships of the line.

While there, the bosn's call was sounded: "Now hear this—all restricted men report to the quarter deck on the double!" We spent four years looking for one of those "doubles" that everyone was supposed to report on—and never found one!

Our Navy is made up of some remarkable craft—and the battleship rates tops. It seems to mark the passing of an era to see the "Big Mo" go into mothballs. New techniques, particularly the use of recoilless rifles and rocket launching have contributed to the obsolescence of the big ships. However, if a hot war should break out again, we'll bet our bottom dollar that the big ships will once again be called to the line of battle.

THE PROOF OF THE PUDDING . . .

Last week this newspaper had the pleasure of running a full page ad announcing the grand opening of the new Hamilton and Winchester Mobilgas service station. According to reports, the station pumped over 3000 gallons of gasoline—somewhat of a record in this area. The point being brought out here is that if you have something worthwhile to advertise, and you run an ad in The Campbell Press and Shopper's Guide—you're going to get really worthwhile results. People read and pay attention.

A race horse can carry but one man on his back, but he can take hundreds of others for a ride at the same time.

WORKMEN Tore up the sidewalk by Hunt's Cannery on Monday and began whacking away with axes at roots of the Walnut tree and old-timers and those with fancies of esthetic beauty did not breath a sigh of relief until an hour or so later that it was learned the tree was not to be cut down but merely was having a bulge removed so the sidewalk would not be a stumbling place for pedestrians.

March Of Dimes Emergency Drive Nets $70,000

Santa Clara County's Emergency March of Dimes campaign is being brought to an end, and it is indicated that the total amount of contributions receiver will come to well over $70,000, according to A. P. Hamann, general chairman of the drvie.

"This amount is considered exceptional," Hamann stated, "especially considering that the public gave to the regular March of Dimes only last January.

"In behalf of the Santa Clara County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, I wish to express our sincere thanks to everyone who has so generously contributed and particularly to all the great staff of volunteers in working on the drive," chairman Hamann added.

"In addition our thanks go to the many organizations whose members assisted on the drive, such as the Junior Chamber of Commerce, service clubs such as the Kiwanis, Lions, Rotary, Exchange, Knights of the Round Table, and many others, both men's and Women's.

"Likewise we wish to include the press and radio of the area, without whose splendid cooperation, the drive could not have been at all successful. All of the newspapers and radio were most generous with their space and time.

Appreciation to all women area chairman was also expressed by Mr. Hamann. They include:

San Jose: Mrs. Darwin Graun; County Rural: Mrs. Bernard Knabe; Campbell-Saratoga: Mrs. Robert Jasmine; Cupertino: Mrs. Leo Bianchi; Gilroy: Mrs. Ralph Costello; Los Altos: Mrs. Roger Deal; Los Gatos: Mrs. Ted Mathies; Morgan Hill: Mrs. Roy Ducoty; Mountain View: Mrs. Frederick Christensen; Palo Alto: Mrs. Paul Stenbit and Mrs. Mike Fleishman; Santa Clara: Mrs. Leonard Handalik and Mrs. Henry Avila; Sunnyvale: Mrs. Estelle Orlando.

While the Emergency drive activities are being brought to an end, the polio problem still exists, chairman Hamann pointed out, and any donations made in the future will be accepted gladly by the polio Foundation.

Estate Planning Topic At Rotary

Joe Carraher of the Bank of America, was speaker at the regular Monday meeting of the Campbell Rotary Club in I. O. O. F. Hall.

Carraher spoke on "Estate Planning", saying that it was extremely important to plan wisely for proper distribution of property and money. He then gave an illustration of a case in which a $200,000 estate was taxed $35,000. He also commented that joint tenancy and community property laws are not the same as they once were and should be investigated by everyone.

The speaker was introduced by Bill Maderis, chairman of the day.

"Dutch Hamann, San Jose City Manager, will tell Campbell Rotarians about his recent trip to Germany at the meeting September 20.

Senator Pleased With Reber Plan Study By State

State Senator John F. "Jack" Thompson announced today he was "very pleased" with the progress to date on the State engineering studies for investigating the feasibility of salt water barriers in San Francisco Bay.

"The so-called Reber Plan is of tremendous and dramatic interest to those of us who live in Santa Clara County," Thompson said. "Barriers which would create fresh water lakes could be the answer to our critical water problem."

The Senator reported that initial field work by a prominent Dutch engineer has been completed and that the actual engineering and economic studies authorized by the State Legislature are well underway.

An appropriation of $500,000 for a study of salinity control barriers was made by the Legislature at the last regular session.

"The investigation of the feasibility of barriers", Thompson pointed out, "will include studies of potential water supply, flood control, reclamation of tidelands, waste disposal and pollution, fish and wild life, transportation, port facilities and navigation, and design, construction and cost of barriers."

He believes that any salt water barrier plan must offer a practical and workable method for water conservation "without offsetting disadvantages and hardships to certain communities, counties and industries."

Thompson also reported that the University of Washington, Department of Oceanography, and the U. S. Corps of Engineers have been called in by the State to investigate the problems surrounding salt-clearing locks.

Campbell Demos To Celebrate First Birthday

The Campbell Democratic Club has announced that its next regular meeting will take the form of a birthday jamboree. The Club was formed one year ago, and has been meeting regularly each month in the Rosemary School. Important among its summer activities was a registration drive. During this drive club members rang doorbells in Campbell, urging unregistered voters to register and become eligible to vote this Fall.

The Club's Birthday Jamboree will be held Tuesday, September 21st, at eight P. M. in the Rosemary School, and all Campbell Democrats, whether Club members or not, are invited to attend.

Ted Wackerman Claims Bride

St. Joseph's Church was the setting last Sunday for the mid-afternoon rites when Florence Cisowski and Ted Wackerman recited their nuptial vows to Father Costa before a flower-banked altar.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother Joe Cisowski, wore a full length princess gown which swept into a train and was styled with a high neckline trimmed with seed pearls and Chantilly lace. Her finger-tip veil cascaded from a crown of seed pearls. A white orchid centered her bridal bouquet of white roses.

Maid of honor was Miss Mary Luiz who wore a gown of aqua net over taffeta. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses and wore a crown of the same flowers.

The three bridesmaids, Elayne Rose, Betty Seward, and Margie Clevenger, all wore identical gowns of yellow net over taffeta. Their bouquets and crowns were of pink roses.

Charles Rose performed the duties of best man. Ushers were Edwin Costa, Harry Seward and Norman Costa.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall in San Jose for some 200 guests. A three-tier wedding cake was centered on a table beautifully decorated with candles and white roses. Music for dancing was furnished by a sister of Charles Rose with her orchestra, "Margaret's Merry-makers", from Niles.

For her going away ensemble, the bride wore a pale pink sheath dress embroidered in rhine-stones and seed pearls, with pink accessories to match.

Florence is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cisowski of Chicago and sister of Mrs. Harry Seward of Cambrian Park, Mrs. Mac McKinley and Joe Cisowski of Campbell. She attended schools in Illinois and at present is employed by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company as an operator.

Pansies For Fall And Winter Color

One of the perennially popular plants in the bedding plant classification currently leads the field according to information released by the California bedding Plant Advisory Board. Reasons for this popularity are readily seen when a planting of this old-time favorite and modern day garden leaders is properly planted and cared for The top ranking plant is the pansy and the reason for the enduring popularity is self-evident as mentioned before. Pansies have all of the attributes that make for the ideal bedding plant. Color is available from the day that they are planted and is available in mixtures and in solid shades of blue, yellow, white, red and rose and occasionally a few additional colors. The plants are quick to grow and just one flower on a plant is sufficient to lend an air of satisfying beauty. Spaced close to a foot apart pansies will have ample room to grow, and because of their spreading habit will never need to be pinched or staked during the fall season. Going into the spring season it is good practice to pinch back the plants to induce fresh growth and larger bloom.

Pansies are charming in massed bed plantings. In such a situation it is wise to raise the bed to provide the best of drainage as pansy plants will rot out of kept continually wet. Pansies also combine delightfully with many other of the cool weather items such as nemesia, schizanthus, primrose, primula obconica, English daisy, dwarf snapdragons and dwarf border begonias, and English forget-me-nots. These plans are tidy growers and not too tall in height so that the rather low growing pansies combine well with many of the true perennials and biennials, such as Iceland poppy, cinerarit, primula malacoides, sweet william or columbine. These are taller growing items and should be set behind the lower growing pansies in order to show to their individual advantage.

Pansies are available in three basic strains from the commercial grower and each strain has its individual appeal. The American strains of pansies are characterized by the word Jumbo and seem to be the most popular in demand. Some growers favor the English strains such as the Engleman Giant for their dwarf compact habit of growth. For dark bold faces and striking colors some growers offer the Roggli pansy strain which is the ultimate in the Swiss strain of pansy. Few pansise can compare with a well grown bed of Swiss Rogglis.

For success with pansies, start with good vigorous plants. Space them at least 8" apart and preferably one foot for best growth. Incorporate a generous amount of humus such as steer manure into the soil previous to planting. Fertilize at least every other week and combine this schedule with a regular spray program. The two main insect pests are white fly and aphids, although a watchful eye should be kept for spider mite. Water regularly and well but do not drown them as they will rot.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

How we may prove and experience man's God-given dominion over material bondage of all kinds—sin, disease, and limitation —will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday. The subject of the Lesson-Sermon is "Matter".

The spiritual heritage of freedom which belongs to man is set forth in the following selection from the Bible (Galatians 4:6,7): "And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father, Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ."

The following passage will be among those read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (223:3): "Sooner or later we shall learn that the fetters of man's finite capacity are forged by the illusion that he lives in body instead of in Soul, in matter instead of in Spirit."

AGNEW SEEKING TO BE CITY

Richard Olson, clerk of the Board of Supervisors reported Monday a petition to incorporate Agnew, was in order so he will decide how much money the community will have to put up before the wheels of incorporation can start moving.

Be sure to set them shallow in the soil as they are not tolerant of having their crowns covered.

Young Couple Now At Home

Now at home to friends in San Jose following a wedding tour to Grand Canyon are Mr. and Mrs. John Leigh Strangman.

John claimed Jean FitzGerald for bride at an afternoon ceremony performed in the Stone Church in Willow Glen.

The Rev. T. H. Simpson officiated.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. James Edward FitzGerald of University Way in San Jose, was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, George W. Pierson. She was preceded to the altar by her matron of honor, Mrs. George Pierson, who was gowned in white lace over pink satin. Her bouquet was of pink carnations.

For her wedding Jean selected a ballerina-length gown of white lace. A coronet or orange blossoms secured her shoulder length veil and she carried a white Bible marked with an orchid from which cascaded white carnations.

Dr. William L. Strangman of Carmel served as his brother's best man and the ushers were Phillip Cardoza and William H. Bond.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. FitzGerald selected a princess style dress of steel blue and wore a velveteen hat of a lighter shade of the same blue. Her corsage was of yellow carnations.

Mrs. Strangman wore a navy blue and white silk dress with a jacket of the same fabric. Her accessories were white and she pinned a corsage of white carnations at the shoulder.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother where guests gathered to watch the bridal couple cut a lovely three-tiered wedding cake.

When they departed for their wedding trip the new Mrs. Strangman was wearing a princess-style dress of multi-colored silk accented by accessories of white.

The bride attended the University of Oregon, University of California and San Jose State College. She was a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority in college. Jean is now teaching at Linda Vista School in the Alum Rock District.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. May Leigh Strangman of 1175 Dry Creek Road, attended the University of Southern California and graduated from the University of California. He is now attending San Jose State College for his teaching credential.

The young people are planning to move into a new home on Dry Creek Road as soon as it is completed.

SERVICE FUNDS AID BOY SCOUTS

Among the groups receiving funds from the Campbell Community Service Fund is the Visiting Nurse Association which last year served 1,600 persons in the Campbell Union High School District.

The Visiting Nurses' Association is a non-profit organization supported by patients' fees, health societies, school districts—with the operating deficit made up by community welfare funds such as our drive to be launched September 30.

Functions of this association is to provide skilled nursing care for the sick in their homes on a fee basis. Visits by a registered nurse cost $3.00 per call or per hour. In some circumstances, the fee may be a portion of this—or even nothing at all. She never refuses a first call and all subsequent visits are made upon the order of the patient's physician with whom she works very closely.

At present, there are six full-time graduate registered nurses and one part-time graduate registered nurse working out of the San Jose office. Of late, the demand for service has far exceeded their facilities for serving. The registered nurse servicing this area is Mrs. Irma Donnelly and she has more calls than she can manage.

The Visiting Nurse Association has requested $1,000 from the Campbell Area Community Service Fund, and it is the belief and hope of all connected with the drive that the people living within the Campbell Union High School District (approximately 40,000 people) will give as much as they can to help support this wonderful organization—as well as the other eight agencies asking us for support.

protect young sight with proper light

Reading and writing need proper lighting. And good lighting is so easy to have in your home. Just make sure that each study lamp is at least 25 inches tall from base to top of shade, and that the lower edge of the shade is 15 inches above table top. The shade should be at least 16 inches in diameter at the bottom, light in color, and opaque. The lamp should have a diffusing bowl, and a 150-watt bulb. With low P. G. and E. rates, good lighting is inexpensive, too! Stop in today and let your lamp dealer help you choose the proper study lamps. While you're there, you can stock up on spare bulbs!

SERVICE FUNDS AID VISITING NURSES' GROUP

Within the Campbell Union High School District, there are a total of 31 Cub Packs, Scout Troops and Explorer Posts—with a total of 1,382 boys which represents 21% of the entire Boy Scout membership in Santa Clara County.

Behind the boys and volunteer leaders is a highly organized Scout Headquarters under the direction of a full-time Scout Executive, four Field Executives and two office secretaries. These are necessarily salaried workers who guide and energize the Scout program consistently throughout the year. Mark Judy is the Field Executive assigned to the Campbell District.

In the Campbell Union High School District, the following citizens volunteer their time in organizing and carrying out the Boy Scout program: John Duncan, District Chairman; Homer Hyde, Vice-Chairman; C. T. Mitchell, District Commissioner. The Operating committee includes Merle Dodd, Camping Activities; Larry Hill Organization and Extension; Rudy Ledum, Advancement; Dr. W. B. Morell, Health and Safety; Harry Hunter, Training; Delbert Lucot, Finance.

Neighborhood Commissions are Max Nigl, George Larson, M. E. Mercer, G. Bachman, Bill Fuller, D. Gregg, Monte Esterbrook, Herb Brown, A. Downing and Art Jones.

Scouting is a national movement and provides a vigorous program of out-of-door activities and achievements in skills for ALL BOYS regardless of race, color or creed. It provides a tremendous force for good in the Community because of the great number of boys who are practicing in their daily lives the ideals of the program as exemplified in the Cub Promise, Law of the Cub Pack, Scout Oath and Scout Law.

To the residents living in the Cambrian, Campbell, Moreland, Moorpark, Quito, San Tomas and Union areas, the Boy Scout Program is a very important one. They need our support to maintain and expand their program. This area must raise $19,600 during the Fund Drive which starts September 30 in order to give the nine agencies the support they need. These agencies are: Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, Y. M. C. A., Family Service Association, Visiting Nurses' Association, Campbell Library, United Defense Fund and Milk and Lunch Fund for our local schools.

CAMBRIANA AIDS YOUTH PROGRAM

Hundreds of people turned out Saturday for the carnival at the Plaza Shopping Center, proceeds from which are to benefit the proposed youth center. It was sponsored by the Cambrian Park Improvement Association.

Variety skits, square dancing, pony rides, games of skill and refreshments were feature attractions.

The committee personnel included Mrs. Edward Shaw, Ronald Vreeland, Mrs. Lyman Ash, Mrs. Rulan Bigelow, Mrs. Milo Long, Mrs. Lee Meyers and Mrs. Robert Slacke.

District 4 Lets Sewer Contract

A sewer installation job in La Rinconada and Stevens Creek areas was approved by directors of Sanitation District 4 at a meeting in Campbell Tuesday night, although there was opposition. The Board awarded a contract to Stroud and Seabrook of Bakersfield for construction on their low bid of $146,898.46.

The opposition came from a group residing in the area east of Winchester-Los Gatos Road between Buena Vista avenue and the Southern Pacific tracks who wanted to be excluded from the LaRinconada unit. When the project was approved they then asked to be dis-annexed from the sanitation district. This will be submitted to the boundaries commission and the office of the county counsel.

SCHOOL FUNDS NEEDED BADLY

When schools in the Campbell Elementary School District opened Monday with 4,392 students in attendance, almost half of the schools had to resort to double sessions to take care of the ever-increasing school population.

More students are expected to enroll as parents return from their vacations and after the opening date of Campbell Union High School.

The new Dover School which opened its doors for the first time already has double sessions for the third graders.

According to William Henley, superintendent, school officials hope that to meet this problems the voters of the district will all turn out and vote for the $950,000 bond issue to be balloted upon on October 7.

Henley said "there are no funds available now for any future building program".

SPORT TAKES

by PAT HERNON

YOUR "LUCKY" SPORTSCASTER

Andy Crevolin, owner of the Kentucky Derby winner, disclosed recently in a breeders' publication that he favors a policy of letting young horses take it easy in early races until their abilities are determined. This touched off quite a storm among turf officials and brought forth a sensible suggestion that if other owners feel that way, the tracks should hold no-wagering races for the testing of young horses. It is unfair to the public to have horses running without really trying, but imagine the howl that would go up from the bettors if they suddenly found out they were not to be allowed to lose money on such-and-such a race — for their own good.

The city of Yakima, Wash., is to be congratulated on the preparations for and reception of the American Legion Junior baseball finalists who overflowed the town. Yakima's goal ever since their team won the Little World Series in Miami has been to have the 1954 tourney in Yakima "the greatest yet."

No one will admit it, but there is a possibility that the Paddy DeMarco-Jimmy Carter lightweight championship fight scheduled for September 22 in San Francisco's Cow Palace will be postponed again and then called off. The reason (which likewise will not come out) is the disappointing $121,000 gate drawn by popular Bobo Olson and Rocky Castellani when a $200,000 gate was predicted.

Hear Pat Hernon's Lucky Lager play-by-play re-creations of major league games of the day over KYA. Because the season is entering its last month and teams in both American and National Leagues are playing off games postponed earlier this year, it is impossible to provide a daily schedule. However, Pat Hernon will broadcast a game each day, at 10:25 a.m. Sunday, and at either 10:55 or 11:15 a.m. Monday through Saturday.

Roy Nicely, the San Francisco Seal shortstop supreme, is playing semi-pro baseball now and loving it. He is with the Coos Bay Lumberjacks in North Bend, Ore. The players have good year around jobs and during the season have only to play two or three games a week with the rest of their time free for fishing, hunting, etc.

With the Pacific Coast League season rapidly drawing to a close it appears some rained-out games will be left off the schedule completely if they do not affect the team standings. Both Seattle and Portland had bad years weatherwise with many of the home dates played under conditions that would discourage a penguin from attending.

The televising of Canadian football throughout the United States is likely to increase interest in a sport which was virtually unknown here a few years ago. Our neighbors have been playing their brand of football for some time, but we only took notice of it when they started playing it with the graduates of our colleges. At any rate the Canadian brand is exciting, wide open and will vastly entertain the television public these fall weekends.

Oakland manager Charlie Dressen is sitting in as enviable a position as any manager in years. In addition to having a job he likes and knows he can keep Dressen has watched his removal from the major leagues loom larger and larger as the "boot of the year." It is also certain that there are several major league clubs anxious to hire Dressen — if he wants to return.

San Jose State Plays Utah Here Saturday Night

San Jose State College opens its most ambitious football schedule at San Jose this Saturday night, meeting the Utah State Agricultural School from Logan, Utah. Kick-off time is 8 p. m. This will be the fourth time these teams have met, the Spartans having won in 1940, and 1941 and in the Raisin Bowl, 20-0 in 1946.

Coach Bob Bronzan feels his Spartans are far advanced on defense over last year's team at this time a year ago but the offense is erratic and jumpy.

Explorer Scouts Back From Outing

Explorer Scouts from Troop 28, sponsored by Campbell Kiwanis Club have returned from a week long back-pack trip into Emigrant Basin Primitive Area north of Yosemite National Park.

After many weeks of careful planning packs were made up and in no case exceeded on-fourth of the packers weight. Food and equipment for the week was packed in to a base camp at Buck Lake via Grouse Lake, Cherry Creek, Woods Lake and Buck Meadow Creek.

From Buck Lake the Explorers visited much of the back country including Cow Meadow, Lake Letora, Huckleberry Lake, Maxwell Lake, Emigrant Lake and many other spots of interest.

Fishing ran from excellent to poor with Buck Lake and Cherry Creek rating high.

The Crew gained considerable experience in the preparation and cooking of dehydrated foods and found it possible to have a good and varied menu by careful planning.

The return trip was made by Deer Lake, Jewelry Lake, West fork of Cherry Creek, Piute Meadow and out via Belle Meadow, making nearly 70 miles of hiking.

This was the climax to a year's program of Exploring by this crew.

Those participating were: Jerry Henley, Crew leader, Gene Andres, Art Hill, Tim Sullivan, Mike Conroy, Doug Dodd and Ken Robison, Advisor.
